

Jerry Tucker

Jerold V. Tucker (Jerry) (jerrytucker@globalcoaching.com) is both an experienced executive coach and a learning and development professional with over 35 years of experience in a wide range of executive coaching, executive development, training, and human resource areas. He is also a well-recognized authority in leadership development as well as organizational transformation. Jerry's innovations in executive coaching and management development have been profiled in numerous books and articles.

Jerry is the founder and principal of Global Coaching LLC, an organization that provides top-quality coaching to executives to enhance their performance and leadership skills. His clients have included dozens of senior-level executives from many of the world's leading public and private organizations in financial services, investment management, telecommunications, consulting, high technology, and manufacturing.

Before founding Global Coaching LLC, Jerry was the Chief Learning Officer for GTE Corporation. In that role, he provided leadership to help transform GTE into a global telecommunications competitor. Working worldwide with senior executives and human resources professionals, Jerry led the design and implementation of a business transformation process for domestic and international business. Included in this redesign process was a major culture change initiative that achieved alignment and integration around key strategic business initiatives. The American Society for Training and Development (ASTD) recognized this achievement with their Excellence in Practice award — two years in a row!

Jerry has served as an advisor for the ASTD Training and Development Handbook, the bible of the training and development field. Additionally, Jerry has been involved with a nature center, where his efforts were recognized with a CLIO award for work in a non-profit organization. He also participated in the development of a set of guidelines for ethics in amateur athletics and has been active with Arizona Greyhound Rescue and with Equine Voices, a horse rescue and sanctuary.

He holds a Bachelor's degree in economics and a Master's degree in management. He resides in Tucson, Arizona, with his wife Kathy and several companion animals.
